Q. The Promotion website says, "All winners are subject to verification of eligibility." What does that mean?

In order to confirm an entrant as an actual winner, the Promotion administrator, PrizeLogic, must confirm that each potential winner has met the eligibility criteria outlined in the Official Rules and has complied with the Official Rules and agrees to accept the prize. A potential winner will be confirmed as a winner after the required paperwork is returned and PrizeLogic is able to confirm an entrant's eligibility as required in the Official Rules that govern the promotion.

Q. How will I know if I have won a prize?

Potential winners will then be notified by email and phone beginning on or about April 7, 2021. All winners are subject to verification of eligibility, regardless of any announcement at the website or on social media.

Q. If I win a prize, will I have to pay taxes on the amount I win?

Winners will be issued a 1099-MISC tax form for the total value of all prizes won in the sweepstakes and will be required to provide their Social Security Number or Tax ID Number to PrizeLogic as part of the winner verification process. Winners are responsible for paying all local, state, and federal taxes associated with accepting the prize as required by law.

Q. Who is the sponsor of this sweepstakes?

The sweepstakes sponsor is Buick, The Official SUV of the NCAA.

Q. Who can I contact if I still have questions?

If you have already reviewed the Official Rules and still have unanswered questions, feel free to submit your question HERE.
